

11. Personal information about children

Main points:

We only keep information about children who are related to people who use our services.

We do not run services for children so we do not usually have personal information about children.

But we are sometimes given information about children when we are helping someone linked to them, such as a parent or a relative.

When we do have personal information about children, we use the same rules as for adults.